

A NEW Dr Who takes to the airwaves tonight.

But Colin Baker won't be watching his debut as a Time Lord.

For a mean thief pinched his telly. And the 40-year-old star said last night: "I'm really upset."

Colin, who shot to fame in the BBC drama series The Brothers, will "regenerate" from the last Doctor—Peter Davison.

The sixth Doctor will also have a new assistant.

And the role is an enormous boost for 22-year-old Nicola Bryant.

A who done it for Dr Who

She is straight from drama school and beat dozens of actresses to land the plum role of Peri.
