Fly away, Peter...

After four years, Peter Capaldi is bowing out as the Time Lord – and for the first time RT is granted access to all areas for his last days on set.

Doctor Who Christmas Day 5.30pm BBC1

TIME FOR A LAUGH

Back in July, Peter Capaldi enjoy a break in filming of the Christmas special. Twice upon a Time at BBC Roath Lock Studios in Cardiff.

WHO ARE YOU LOOKING AT?

Peter Capaldi shares a moment of reflection in his private trailer.

DOCTOR ON CALL

Peter prepares to go on set.

THE TIME LORD'S SECRET FILE

Peter shows us his script binder adorned with blasts from the past.

Photographed exclusively for Radio Times by Ray Burmiston
IN COSTUME
The 12th Doctor is sporting a distressed look in his final outing.

WHO ME?
Peter checks a shot with director Rachel Talalay.

FIRST A SELFIE
David Bradley and Pearl Mackie (the first Doctor and Bill) capture a moment in time.

BEST FRENEMIES
One last touchy-feely encounter with an archenemy.

THE LAST 'WHORRAH' FOR CAST AND CREW
From left: Executive producer Brian Minchin, Dalek voice artist Nicholas Briggs, David Bradley, Pearl Mackie, Peter Capaldi, showrunner Steven Moffat and director Rachel Talalay.

“Peter Capaldi is one of the finest actors in the world.”
STEVEN MOFFAT

DON'T LOOK BACK
Peter Capaldi is leaving the building.